

DELIVER THE WOW FACTOR – UNDER BUDGET!

Many Northern California destinations claim to offer great value for the money, but it still has to be in budget!

Yosemite Gold Rush Country - Your “in-budget” alternative offers:

- Four-season recreational activities of every kind at elevations ranging from 500 ft. (150 m) to over 10,000 ft. (3000 m)
- Gold-rush era history and the old west as it really was
- Great cultural attractions and activities: Museums, theater, year-round special events and more
- Meeting venues of every type: From the traditional to houseboats, and old-west trains, historic inns and old-west meeting halls, under the tall pines and much more!
- ALL AT AFFORDABLE PRICES YOU WON'T BELIEVE!

Bring your group where your money goes further while still getting the WOW factor!

Bring them to Yosemite Gold Country!

Only 2 ½ hours driving time from San Francisco or Silicon Valley (and just 2 hours from Sacramento) unique venues include:

- Yosemite National Park: A global icon and one of America's most scenic and popular attractions
- Secluded mountain retreats and over 30 wineries
- An historic 19th century train and station that have become film and TV stars
- Houseboats with function space for 40 or more!
- A 19th century old-west opera house
- And so many more!

- Go golfing, horseback riding, biking, white-water rafting or zip lining in the magnificent Sierra Nevada, or just relax on a lake or under the tall pines.

- Enjoy an evening of live theater for a price you won't believe. You can even take over one of the historic theaters for a private performance or event

- Visit any of over 30 wineries, shop for antiques and take in the “real” old west in the nearby towns of Jamestown, Columbia, Chinese Camp, Groveland and Sonora –all of which look like movie sets...and frequently are!

- Find quality lodging at prices well below what you'd pay to the north or south of San Francisco and Silicon Valley...even in high season!

Yosemite Gold Country and the neighboring foothills and mountain communities are the perfect pairing with San Francisco for pre and post experiences or as a stand-alone destination for those seeking something new and different for their group.

Getting There (according to Google Maps) – To Sonoma; the hub of the region!

- From San Francisco: 132 miles (210 Km), 2 hrs & 31 min
- From San Jose: 129 miles (205 Km), 2 hrs and 29 minutes
- From Oakland: 117 miles (188 Km), 2 hours and 15 minutes
- From Dublin/Pleasanton: 98 miles (157 Km), 1 hr & 54 min

A BAKER'S DOZEN OF IDEAS FOR YOUR NEXT EVENT!

1. Strike it rich! Pan for gold just like the 49er's did 160 years ago. Spend an afternoon or a few days seeking your fortune.

2. Ride the wave! Take your group white-water rafting in the magnificent wild rivers of the Sierra foothills.

3. Go on safari! Take a photo safari of Yosemite National Park with professional photographers.

4. Enjoy flavors of the foothills! Visit the "other" wine country of Tuolumne and Calaveras Counties with some 30 wineries and a new cider distillery to choose from.

5. Go underground! Take a guided tour of Mercer Caverns, Moaning Cavern or California Caverns

6. All aboard! Ride the "Movie Train" (It's appeared in over 300 films and TV shows) at Railtown 1897 Historic State Historic Park. While you're there take in the great photos and history of Hollywood's version of the Old West in the "real" old west! The trains have appeared in over 300 films and TV shows.

7. Go natural! Hold your next event under the tall pines. Guest ranches and lodges offer ideal outdoor function space in quiet, scenic environments that enhance creativity and communication.

8. Do some tasteful teambuilding! Make candy at the Columbia Candy Kitchen...one of America's Top Ten Most Romantic Chocolate Shops according to USA Today.

9. Be on the next stage out of town! Ride a stagecoach in and around Columbia State Historic Park and experience the Old West the way it really was.

10. Enjoy "Broadway" for less than $30 per person! Take in a live theater performance at prices you and your group can afford at one of our three repertory theaters.

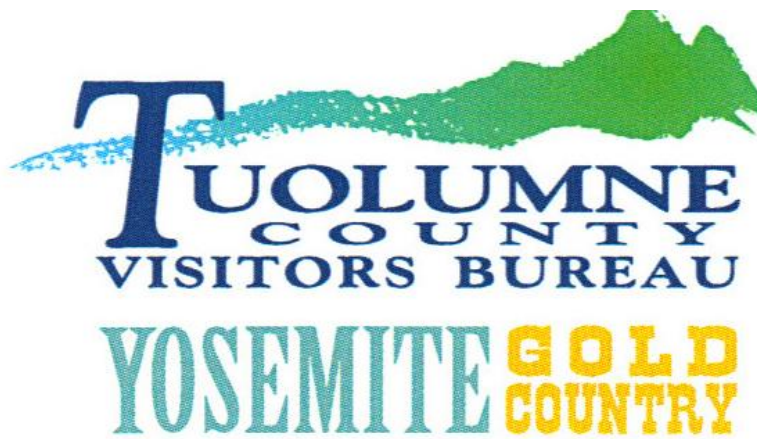

11. Take a hike or a ride! Be it a nice gentle walk through Yosemite Valley, an overnight trek in the high country or a ride on horseback or llama you'll view some of the most magnificent scenery found anywhere on Earth on over 700+ miles of trails.

12. Step back in time! Take a leisurely stroll through old west Gold Rush era communities where you'll find local museums, antique stores, quaint restaurants and charming old west architecture.

13. Get out there! Jet ski, motorboat, houseboat, kayak or paddle board around one of seven lakes in the area. Choose from lower elevation lakes surrounded by century-old oaks to high country lakes boasting pine trees and scenic mountain views.

Located in Jamestown, in California's Gold Country, Railtown 1897 State Historic Park is home to the Historic Jamestown Shops and Roundhouse of the Sierra Railway. This one-of-a-kind attraction combines industrial heritage and railroad history with the lore of Hollywood's film industry. The Railtown 1897 Interpretive Center, the authentic roundhouse and shops, and the Depot Store (a railroad specialty gift shop) are among the Park's unique year-round offerings.

Known as "The Movie Railroad," Railtown's survival has been aided by the film industry. The first known filming was in 1919, for a silent serial called "The Red Glove." Railtown 1897 and the historic locomotives and railroad cars preserved here have appeared in more than 200 films, television productions, and commercials. Still a popular Hollywood location site, Railtown 1897 has been called "the most photographed railroad in the world." "Petticoat Junction," "The Wild, Wild West," "High Noon," "The Virginian," and "Unforgiven" were all filmed here. Recently, movie crews produced the railroad sequences in "Back to the Future Part III" at Railtown.

Function space includes the station itself with 3 separate rooms accommodating small groups, the parlor car shown at the right plus other individual cars, the entire train for private train rides and an expansive lawn area adjacent to the station that will seat up to 400 in rounds.

Groups are welcome to tour the historic roundhouse and museum containing many film props used over the years.
